the venerable man raised his hands and eyes to Heaven, and thus silently and emphatically acknowledged whence the victory had come, and what aid he had implored to guard his beloved country in the perilous conflict. It was not until the lapse of about a minute, that he paused from his devout thankfulness, and ordered the troops to stand to their arms—Sunday School Journal.

The last words which the eminent physician Haller addressed to his medical attendant, expressed the calm serenity of his mind. "My friend," said he, laying his hand on his pulse—"The artery no longer beats."

M. De La Harpe, one of the first literary characters of the last century, who for many years labored to spread the principles of the French philosophy, but afterwards became a most strenuous defender of Christianity, on the evening preceding his death was visited by a friend. He was listening to the Prayers for the Sick; as soon as they were concluded, he stretched forth his hand and said—"I am grateful to Divine mercy, for having left me sufficient recollection to feel how consoling these prayers are to the dying."

Cardinal Woolsey, when dying, by slow progress and short journeys, reached Leicester Abbey. He was received with the greatest respect. His only observation was, "Father Abbot, I am come to lay my bones among you." He died three days after, with great composure and fortitude. He said, shortly before his death—"Had I but served my God as diligently as I have served the king, he would not have forsaken me in my grey hairs ; but this is the just reward I must receive for my pains and study in not regarding my service to God, but only to my prince."

McLancthon, a few days before his death, although extremely debilitated, delivered his usual lecture. At the termination of it, he said, impressively, "I am a dying man, and there are the three subjects for intercession with God, which I leave to my children and their little ones—that they may form part of His church, and worship Him aright—that they may be one in Him, and live in harmony with each other—and that they may be fellow-heirs of eternal life." The day before his death, he addressed some present—"God bestows talents on our youth,—do you see that they use them aright." While dying, his friends discerned a slight motion of the countenance, which was peculiar to him when deeply affected by religious joy.

Patrick Henry left in his will the following testimony in favor of the Christian Religion:—"I have now disposed of all my property to my family; there is one thing more I wish I could give them, and that is the Christian Religion. If they had that, and I had given them nothing, they would be rich—and without it, if I had given them all the world, they would be poor."

To smile when our feelings are wounded; to spurn the little evils of life, and endure what is unavoidable with firmness, denotes a strong and well regulated mind—To assert our principles in the presence of death, and look calmly and proudly on the executioner, sustains the hope that the soul can never die.

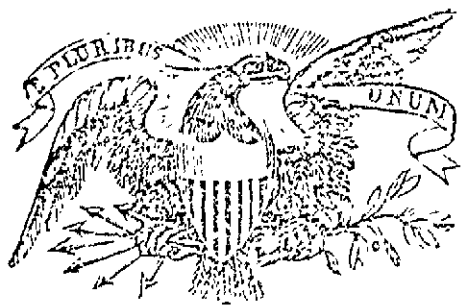

A virtuous and enlightened mind cannot be the permanent abode of sorrow—it has aids to lean on besides the condolence of friends—There are duties to perform, rewards to enjoy, and hopes to indulge on earth. If these do not glitter in the gloom of present affliction, imagination may present beyond the dark curtain of Mortality, an image at which the mourner might look and forget to weep.

Anecdote of Washington.—The surprise and capture of the Hessian troops at Trenton is a well remembered event in our revolutionary history. It occurred at the darkest period of the struggle, and it was in the hour when the hopes of the most sanguine had almost

On that eventful morning, Col. Burton, of Philadelphia, rode by the side of Vreeland, and it is from his oft-remembered relation of the circumstances of that contest that we have derived our knowledge of the following interesting fact.

The American troops crossed the Delaware at the mills along Trenton, and marched into the divisions opposite town. This unexpected approach from the rear, at a critical moment, supposed to be a display of an ordinary battle, was completely successful and although the British were not completely defeated the riding, and it was 3 o'clock when Washington entered the village, the militia was gathered with an ease almost unthought of. In a few minutes the warriors were driven in, and within five minutes, having surrounded the town, the militia began to dismount from any remainder. When observed, the column retreated to Manassas, he was pressing forward, and animating his troops by his voice and example. Instantly checking his horse, and throwing the reins upon his neck,

ADAMS SENTINEL.

Gettysburg, Nov. 1.

This No. commences the sixteenth year since the "Sentinel" has been under the direction of its present Editor. It affords him the highest satisfaction to announce, that amidst the troublous times that have been felt around him, his Establishment is in a highly prosperous situation. The steady increase of his list, cheers him on in the independent course he has pursued. And whilst his heart-felt thanks are due to his patrons for their past support, he trusts that his exertions to render his paper a vehicle of early, interesting, correct and general intelligence, will continue to ensure him the confidence of a discerning community.

The coming session of Congress will be highly important, from various causes. A strict attention will be paid by the Editor, to give his readers early and correct information of all matters of interest that may transpire in that body, as well as in the Legislature of our own State.

A meeting was held in Carlisle on the 22d ult. at which strong resolutions were passed, recommending John D. Mahon, Esq. as a candidate for Congress, in the room of Mr. Ramsey, deceased. The Conference meet this day at Shippensburg to select a candidate—who, it is supposed, will be ROBERT M'COR, Esq. of Carlisle. In that event, we understand, Mr. Mahon will be a volunteer candidate.

The Anti-Masonic party will, probably, have a candidate likewise.

We have published, in the preceding page, the proceedings of the Delegate meeting, in compliance with their request. The reasons given for the reelection of Gen. Jackson will just pass for as much as they are worth. We cannot see their propriety.

The firms of Wm. B. and J. Underwood, Editors of the "Volunteer," and of Spencer and Crever, Editors of the "Republican," in Carlisle, have both been dissolved within the past week. The fact that the first named person of each firm took an active part in the Mahon meeting, and the papers remain in active opposition, would lead us to suspect that the Editorial "squabble" is attributable to that cause.

If our anti-Jackson brother of the "Pittsburg Gazette" would be better pleased with the classification of parties into Republican and Anti-Republican, upon the next occasion that offers for the application of the cognomina, we will feel disposed to gratify him. Whatever may be thought abroad, we know not nor care not—but, when "the time comes," the National Republicans will unfurl their banner to the wind—they are not "extinct."

The National Tariff Convention assembled at New-York on Wednesday last. Four Hundred and Thirty Delegates, representing Thirteen States, answered to their names upon the first day. The following gentlemen were, by an unanimous vote, elected Officers of the Convention:—

President.
Wm. Wilkins, of Pennsylvania.
Vice-Presidents.
Joseph Kent, of Maryland,
James Tallmadge, of New-York,
George Blake, of Massachusetts,
Lewis Condict, of New-Jersey.
Secretaries.
Hezekiah Niles, of Maryland,
Robert Tillotson, of New-York,
Charles P. Lee, of Vermont,
J. W. Pierce, of N. H.

AFFAIRS ABROAD.

Although during the current week there have been arrivals here, as well as at New-York and Philadelphia, the intelligence is as small in bulk as in the quality of its character. The packet of the 15th ult. borely expected at New-York, will probably bring something, but in the mean time we must content ourselves with the news received, the latest of which is by the Exile at New-York from Havre, as late as the 12th September.

A change of ministry was talked of in France. M. Delescluse, minister under Louis XVIII. being mentioned as successor to M. Perrier, who says he will retire, should the project of the law against an hereditary peerage pass into a law.

There had been some disturbances in Paris, and excitement prevailed in the departments of the South. Arrests had been made, and the prisoners liberated by the people.

It is rumored that in Poland the Russians had been attacked and driven from the neighborhood of Warsaw.

From Belgium there is nothing of importance. A change had been made in the ministry.

The Cholera was making ravages at Vienna, and had re-appeared in Venice. The population on the continent of Europe hold the disease in the greatest dread, and fly from it in every direction. Bell. Minerva.

France, it is now said, is exerting herself by all means in her power to induce the British Government to join with her in making such demands of the emperor of Russia as will prevent any further effusion of blood in Poland. The French Minister, besides sending Gen. Baudrand to London to negotiate with ministers, has also despatched an individual of high rank to St. Petersburg, who is to assume a tone of so determined a character, as to leave little doubt, that unless the Emperor makes concessions to the Poles, going nearly the whole length of what is demanded by the Poles themselves, hostilities will be commenced against Russia.

From the Cherokee Phoenix of Oct. 15.

The Cherokee annuity goes off slowly. For want of customers it is now obliged to go about begging. We are informed the sub-agent has been travelling through the country with an interpreter for the purpose of paying off the money. From what we can learn he has had but poor success. We know this new scheme cannot succeed. The Government would do well, therefore, to pay the annuity at once, as it was wont to do, or to let it rest at the agency or to send it back whence it came. It belongs to the Nation, and individuals will not be compelled to receive it merely for the purpose of advancing the views and designs of the "powers that be."

We have every reason to believe that every possible effort will be made, this fall, by the General Government, in conjunction with the authorities of Georgia, to induce the Cherokees to emigrate to the west of the Mississippi. We have before us a correspondence between Gov. Gilmer and the Secretary of War on this subject, which we intend to publish as soon as we are able, in order to let our citizens know what they are to contend with. Agents will be employed to visit them and to attack them with persuasion, arguments, and with promises of "great advantages at the west," so that, if possible, their removal may be effected. We hope the firmness of the Cherokees will be honorably tested, and that the Government will be convinced that false promises will not easily seduce them from the "land of their fathers."

LATE FROM PERNAMBUCO.

By the arrival at Philadelphia of the fast sailing brig J. Ashmun, Capt. Cowpland, 22 days from Pernambuco (sailed Oct. 3d,) the U. S. Gazette learns that on the 10th Sept. the soldiers at Pernambuco revolted, and took possession of the city, and kept it for three days; after they had possession, they threw off their armor (in disguise) and plundered almost every store in the place; but as they were retiring with their plunder, were met by the citizens (assisted by the American and English residents.) The city was retaken: 800 soldiers were killed, and about 200 wounded. The citizens lost 15 killed and 2 wounded.

Riotous Proceedings in Hudson, (N. Y.)

We learn that a most unaccountable excitement, leading to acts of violence and the disturbance of public worship, has existed in Hudson, in this state, for some days past. The facts as far as we have learned them are these:—The Rev. John N. Maffitt, of the New-England Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has been preaching for a few weeks in that city; an awakening has followed his labors, and the number of hopeful conversions, week before last, were estimated at about thirty. Matters proceeded on quietly until Wednesday evening of last week, when a large mob surrounded the church with intentions evidently hostile to the Rev. Mr. Maffitt. His friends, we understand, saved him from violence with much personal hazard. The next day the city was in much commotion, and the authorities expressed their fears that they should not be able to protect the Rev. gentleman from harm. He however persevered and preached in the evening; but the house was surrounded by thousands, the meeting interrupted, and he was attended to his house by a strong guard of gentlemen who volunteered to protect him from the exasperated and passion-possessed multitude.

We learn however that the tumult has subsided. It is a fact highly honorable to that city, that the Mayor, the Recorder, and other distinguished individuals exerted themselves to the extent of their power in restoring order. Budget's Weekly Messenger.

Domestic Industry.—It has been found out in New-Hampshire, "that there are few or no bachelors among mechanics." We believe the discovery is well-founded.

Melancholy death of three children by fire.—On Saturday week, the 18th inst. three children, the eldest of whom was about seven years, perished by fire, in the stable of a man named J. B. Paul, who resided contiguous to the village of Sorel. Four children, having obtained some eggs, resolved on roasting them in the stable, for which purpose they brought in fire and applying it to dry combustibles in the house, were quickly enveloped in flames. One of them effected his escape, but in haste to do so, shut the door, and left the other three to perish by a most miserable death. An alarm was given immediately, but the flames had gained such an ascendancy, that it was impossible to bring succor. The mother of two of the sufferers rushed to the aid of her children, but being unable to rescue them, while their piercing cries were heard above the crackling of the flames, became instantly delirious, and continues in that state. The three bodies, after the fire had subsided, were taken out nearly reduced to cinders. Vindicator.

The troubles on our frontiers are likely to become serious. It is said that a messenger has arrived at Portland, express to the Governor of Maine, who brings the intelligence that the citizens of Madawaska, who refused obedience to the inhabitants of New-Brunswick, have been arrested and carried off.

Melancholy Death.—We learn that Mr. Morris Dodd, his son, and a black man, who resided near Newark, N. J. were suffocated in a cistern containing foul air, yesterday afternoon. It is supposed the black man went in first—young Mr. Morris after him—and the father to save the son: thus, all three were lost—merely by not trying the cistern with a lighted candle.—N. F. Com. Adv.

The N. York Journal of Commerce contains the following notice of a singular suicide:—

Mr. S. C. Benjamin, of New-York, from Philadelphia, left his birth and plunged into the sea, sometime during Monday night. A letter was found in the pocket of a coat left behind, addressed to Mr. Isaac Price, 308 Market st. Philadelphia, in which he says:—The loss of one whose absence is insupportable, has led my spirits to the resolution of bidding farewell to time. My body I must of course leave behind; and that I may not occasion any one trouble respecting its disposal, I give it for its grave the deep Atlantic. And let not Turk, Christian nor Pagan have the foolish assurance to pronounce my doom, until their spiritual law-givers and doctors of theology know more of our Creator and the mystery of life and death than I do."

From the Washington Globe.

The President's Health.—The friends of the President will be gratified to learn, that he has recovered entirely from the attack of fever with which he was visited. Previously to his illness, he suffered occasionally with head ache. The treatment for the epidemic seems to have renovated his health in every respect, and it is now more perfect than it has been for several years.

Lectures on Chemistry.

It is proposed to deliver a course of Lectures on this interesting and useful science, in which its principles will be familiarly explained, and elucidated by numerous experiments. The whole of the proceeds of these lectures will be appropriated to procuring Apparatus for the use of the Gettysburg Female Academy. The first Lecture will be delivered on Friday, on the evening of Tuesday the 22d inst. at half past six o'clock, at the Female Academy, when the terms, which shall be moderate, will be made known. It is hoped that those who would engage in a study so delightful and amusing, and all who hold friendly to our design, will favor us with their attendance. Nov. 1.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

During the approaching session, the Pennsylvania Reporter will contain full, fair, and impartial reports of the proceedings of both branches of the Legislature. Competent reporters are already engaged, who will attend regularly in the Senate and House of Representatives during their sessions. The Reports will be printed on the large Imperial sheet, with such type, which will enable us to give the reports of proceedings and debates in both Houses, of great length and interest, and will be sent to subscribers at a price not to be paid in any other manner. The Reports will be published in general, and particularly to the citizens of Pennsylvania, a highly respectable and useful work.

PROPOSALS

For continuing the Publication of the Recorder, under the Title of

The Maryland Recorder, & TANNEY-TOWN HERALD.

THE undersigned having purchased the printing establishment of "THE RECORDER AND TANNEY-TOWN HERALD," from Mr. Samuel P. Davidson, deems it essentially necessary for the continuance of the paper, (under the title of the "Maryland Recorder & Tanney-town Herald,") that prompt & vigorous exertions should be made immediately to obtain an accession to the present subscription list—without a more enlarged patronage the paper must be discontinued. Prompted by the voluntary assurance of aid from a number of persons who feel anxious that the attempt to establish a newspaper in this part of the County should not prove abortive, and relying on the intelligence of the community, and on the support that community is able and willing to bestow, the subscriber has been induced to undertake its publication. That a newspaper is much wanted in this end of Frederick County, cannot be questioned, when we look at the extent of the county, and the great distance Frederick-town is from the section of country this paper is intended to supply. And that a more desirable place for its publication than Tanney-Town could not have been selected, appears manifest, when we view its central situation. From its position in this end of the county, and the local advantages it possesses, it is certainly better calculated for the dissemination of intelligence through the medium of the press, than any one of the neighboring towns; and from its proximity to those towns, it will answer equally well for the exigencies of each.

The character of the paper on questions touching all political and religious controversies, will be NEUTRAL. The paper having been established on the principle of neutrality, and supported without discrimination of party, the present Editor would not consider himself as doing justice to his subscribers did he pursue a different course. The paper, therefore, will not contain any thing of a political complexion from the pen of the Editor, showing the bias of his political views, or affecting in the least any parties that may be in juxtaposition with each other. But as our citizens are freemen, and entitled to the rights and privileges of choosing their rulers, it becomes necessary, in the distinction they are called upon to make between the respective candidates, that they should be made fully acquainted with the merits of each, examined and set forth in the proceedings of the several parties; we shall, therefore, for the information of our political friends, open a Political Department, in which shall be inserted all important party papers, over the signature of responsible names, or such as appear to be published "by authority," always excepting scurrilous and reprehensible articles. It will be open for temperate and well-written communications on all political questions. But the great and paramount object of "The Recorder," and in which the Editor will use his best exertions, will be to make it an interesting FAMILY PAPER, containing all the important events of the day, both Foreign and Domestic;—embracing the most important Foreign Intelligence; an epitome of the Proceedings of Congress, of our State Legislature, and that of our Sister States; all important Documents relating to the internal concerns of the State and Union, and Miscellaneous News, calculated for the taste of every class of readers. The Farmer, the Mechanic, and the Merchant, will receive that degree of attention which their respective vocations demand—in Agriculture, Science, & Commerce. The Literary Department will be furnished with Select Tales, Poetry, Anecdotes, &c. which will prove interesting to the young, and particularly the Ladies.

TERMS.

Two Dollars per annum, payable in advance. No subscription will be taken for less than six months, and no paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid up, unless at the option of the Editor.

Advertisements not exceeding one square, inserted four times for one dollar; larger ones in the same proportion; and twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion.

The first No. of the "Recorder," under the new arrangement, will be issued on the 22d of November.

COMMUNICATED FOR THE "SENTINEL."

Delegate Meeting.

At a meeting of Delegates from the Borough of Gettysburg, and the different townships in the county of Adams, elected by the "Democratic Republican Citizens of Adams county, and all others opposed to the dangerous and proscription principles of Political Anti-Masonry," held at the Court house in the borough of Gettysburg, on Monday the 24th Oct. 1831—Robert M. Hutchisson, of Berlin, was called to the Chair, and George Geyer, Jr. of the borough of Gettysburg, appointed Secretary.

George Brown Esq. John B. Clark, Esq. and David Blythe, were appointed Conferees to meet the Conferees of this Congressional District, at Shippenburg, on the 1st November, to nominate a candidate for Congress, in the room of Wm Ramsey, Esq. deceased.

Hon. Daniel Sheffer, A. G. Miller, and Isaac Robinson, Esqs. were appointed to represent Adams County, in a Convention to be held in Harrisburg on the 4th of March next, or such other day or days as may be fixed upon in the mean time, to nominate Candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, and to form an Electoral Ticket for the same; and to nominate a Candidate for Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That these several Delegates have power to supply any vacancy that may occur in their respective bodies.

The following proceedings were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the peace and happiness of this community have been disturbed by a manœuvre of designing and unprincipled men, called "Political Anti-Masonry," which does not appear to be predicated on the liberal principles of our Government, but has been directed to the destruction of honest and worthy members of society, who have, and are entitled to, equal rights and privileges with all citizens: And having viewed, with serious concern for the equal & liberal institutions of our country, as well the original design, and the various windings and inconsistencies of the leaders of Political Anti-Masonry, as the gross deception practised upon the honesty and credulity of the people, by their nomination of A MASON, who adheres to the principles of the Order, and has not renounced, for the high office of President of the U. States—we must, as citizens of a free country, protest against Political Anti-Masonry, as dangerous in principle, and opposed to the sacred, and equal, and liberal institutions of our Government. Therefore,

Resolved, That we cannot sanction or support, but must in conscience oppose, any party or association in politics, that is not founded on the equal and liberal principles of our Constitutions & laws.

Resolved, That we consider the fact of political anti-masons persecuting, at home, men who ever had attached themselves to the Masonic institution, and all others who will not assist them in their purposes—and, at the same time, nominating for the highest office in the gift of the American people, Wm. Wirt, a Mason who has not renounced—to be a violation of principle, and an imposition upon an honest and virtuous people.

Resolved, That our Conferees to Shippenburg be instructed to put in nomination for Congress no man, but a friend of the Tariff and Protecting Duties; a known friend of the General and State Administrations; & a firm opponent of Political Anti-Masonry.

Resolved, That we approve of the administration of General Andrew Jackson, and instruct our Representatives to the State Convention, to support his nomination for a re-election to the office of President of the United States:

Because he is, in all respects, eminently qualified by his talents, integrity, and republican principles, for that high and responsible station:

Because we believe the principles of his administration are according to the constitution and laws of our country, which he has construed, so as to reduce them to their original purity:

Because he has prevented, by his veto of the Maysville Road bill, a lavish and unconstitutional expenditure of public money, for local not national purposes of improvement, which would have operated to the embarrassment of our government, and to the prejudice of our citizens:

Because he has retrenched the expenditures of Government, and he requires from all officers a strict performance of their duties, and an exact accountability of public funds; and in so doing, he has dismissed from office hordes of officers, who had been draining the public treasury for their own emolument and gain, and who, when called to account, proved delinquent:

Because he has nearly paid off the have it extinguished:

Because he has proved to the American people his honest devotion to their interests and wishes, and his integrity and firmness of purpose, by dismissing a cabinet, in which full confidence was not reposed, for their deception and intrigue, and formed a new one of eminent, and distinguished, and competent individuals:

Because, while others were calculating the "value of the Union of these States," he has declared the principle, and will maintain it—"The Federal Union—it must be preserved!"

Because, by his able and efficient administration of public affairs, he has given the world to know, that, as the Executive of the American Government, it is his "settled purpose to ask nothing that is not clearly right; and to submit to nothing that is wrong," by which he has established for us abroad, fame, honor and dignity, and at home, happiness and prosperity:

Because he has secured to the United States additional interest, in obtaining sundry treaties and negotiations with foreign nations, such as the treaty with England, for the trade of the West India Islands; the treaty with Turkey, for the free navigation of the Black Sea; the treaties with Denmark, Brazil and Colombia, for indemnities for spoliation on our commerce; and that with France for the same, by which American citizens obtain from the French nation twenty-five millions of francs:

Because he has had the duty on the common necessities of life, and articles not the produce of this country, such as salt, coffee, tea, cocoa, &c. reduced, so that they can be obtained at a cheaper rate:

Because of his just and humane conduct with, and treatment of, the Indian nations:

Because he has abolished the horrid crime of Duelling in the Army and Navy of the U. States, and among officers of government, by dismissing from office all persons engaged in the same:

Because, although he is willing to decline, yet the American people wish to prove, a second time, that Republics are not ungrateful to the Hero & Statesman.

Resolved, That his Excellency GEO. WOLF deserves the approbation of our citizens, for the able, honest and independent manner he has administered the government of this Commonwealth; and especially for his recommendation of the means of diffusing a general system of education among us, whereby our children can soon derive all necessary instruction gratis; and his firm and independent policy of preventing the accumulation of the public debt, so imprudently contracted during the administration of his predecessor, unless to complete public works already commenced, which would otherwise be useless.

Resolved, That, as we can discover no reason why there should be any change in the Administration of our State, we unanimously instruct our Representatives to said Convention, to put in nomination his Excellency GEO. WOLF, for a re-election to the office of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the papers in this County.

Late Foreign Intelligence.

By an arrival at Baltimore, London dates to the 12th Sept. have been received.

The coronation of William IV. and Adelaide, took place with great pomp, on the 8th of September.

POLAND.

The latest intelligence from Poland contained in these papers is dated, "From the Frontiers, Aug. 27," & published in the Prussian State Gazette of the 2d inst. It refers principally to mere movements of the hostile armies.

The main Polish army had retired within the fortifications of Warsaw, after having sustained a loss of 14 or 1500 men in a reconnaissance, owing to the imprudence of Colonel Legallais, a French officer. Two corps have been detached into the Palatinates of Podlachia and Plozk. The former, and the stronger, under the French General Romarino, is believed in Paris to have obtained a signal victory over a portion of the army of Rudiger. One good effect of these diversions has been the introduction into Warsaw of large supplies of provisions.

Within the walls of the city comparative tranquillity had been restored by the firmness of the new Chief of Dictator, Krukowiecki. Four of the miscreants concerned in the horrible massacre of the 16th ult. have been shot, but it is said that the leaders in those frightful disorders have been allowed to escape with impunity. So far from having any intention of surrendering, the determination of the troops and the citizens to defend themselves to the last extremity, had, if possible, become more fixed. The Russians, on the other hand, are described as eager for orders to assault. The leaders of both armies are aware of the value of time. Paskewitch is hastening his preparations for decisive operations against Warsaw, well knowing that, if the city hold out for but six weeks more, the winter will have set in, and expose him to the repetition of the defeats and losses of the Dictator.

Such is precisely the impression on the minds of the Polish Generals; they will consequently laugh to scorn the summons to surrender, by which, on three successive days, the Russian Marshal means to precede his attack upon Warsaw. The obstinacy of the Emperor Nicholas, in declaring in advance (according to private letters from Berlin) that he will listen to no mediation of other powers—no terms on the part of the Poles short of absolute submission, is, therefore, superfluous.

There are St. Petersburg dates to the 24th August inclusive, but no mention is made of the report received last week by way of Cronstadt and Boston, of the rupture between the Russian Government and the French Minister resident there.

A British squadron had sailed for the Tagus for the purpose of redressing the injuries inflicted by the Portuguese Government on British subjects.

The British sloop of war Alligator, from off Algiers on the 17th August, reports that the French had a few days previously had an affair with the Bedouins, in which they sustained a loss of 600 men, and are said to be masters of only ten miles round Algiers; 2,500 of their troops were sick in the hospital, and others were constantly returning to France. The town was very badly supplied with provisions.

The Herald of the 12th says: "The American packet ship President, Capt. Champlin, passed through Spithead yesterday evening, in 24 days from New York; she is a splendid vessel, and brings as passenger his Excellency the Honorable M. Van Buren, Ambassador from the U. States to this country. He landed at Cowes."

AUSTRIA.

The Insurrections in Hungary have been suppressed. Four hundred of the revolted peasantry had been made prisoners, of whom several had been tried by Courts-martial, and shot. Italy is, for the moment, tranquil. The French Journals disbelieve the accounts of movements having taken place in Naples, and of disturbances in Greece.

TURKEY.

Accounts from Constantinople of the 10th confirm the accounts of the dreadful fire which destroyed the whole suburb of Pera on the 2d August. The fire commenced in a quarter very distant from Pera itself, and inhabited by the lowest class of Greeks and Armenians, but a violent north wind caused the flames to spread so that several quarters were on fire at once. To this was added the want of water, and still more of the necessary hands and good regulations. At noon the flames had reached Pera itself; and at 11 at night that suburb no longer existed. The large palaces inhabited by the English, French, Dutch, Prussian, Sardinian & Danish Ambassadors, with all the valuable effects, fell a prey to the flames. The Episcopal church, and two of the Roman Catholic churches, shared the same fate; nor was it possible to save any of the sacred utensils. The palace of the Austrian Ambassador was saved, as it seems, by the exertions of the crews of some Austrian vessels; also the Russian Chancery, which is close to it; the church of Terra Santa, and some adjoining houses. The number of buildings of stone and wood that are burnt is over 4,000.

All Pera is a heap of ashes & crumbling walls, not above 10 houses remaining entire. The damage, in consequence of the destruction of the palaces of the Ambassadors, and other stone buildings, was immense; at the beginning of the fire a vast quantity of property was removed to them, as being deemed safe from all danger. "It is a most afflictive sight," says the account, "to see the thousands of people without shelter, without clothing, or the means of subsistence, who crowded the streets of Pera. Subsequently they dispersed in the neighboring places, and great numbers have found a refuge in the capital, as the Sultan, by a special ordinance, has allowed the Turks to let their houses to christians. The Sultan has expressed great dissatisfaction at the little assistance afforded by the Turkish arrangements for extinguishing the fire, and has testified to the Foreign Ambassadors his regret at their loss. He has given large sums to be distributed among the sufferers, and, as usual, expressed his sorrow to the Ambassadors by a present of flowers, fruits, and confectionary."

In addition to the plague, which had prevailed for some time at Constantinople, the cholera was very destructive. Since the beginning of August between 2000 and 3000 persons had been attacked by this disorder, which, however, seemed to be less malignant than in other places.

The Washington Globe gives the following intelligence:—

"Rio Janeiro papers to the 1st Sept. have been received at the Department of State, from which it is not difficult to discover, that Brazil is in a most dreadful state. The Regency, acting in the name of the infant Emperor, seem to be assiduously endeavoring to restore tranquility, and their efforts are certainly well directed; but they are opposed by a party whose principles are subversive of every thing like government, and who are constantly exciting the people to anarchy. Its principal organ is a journal called the Nova Luz, or New Light, ostensibly edited by a Frenchman named Chaumette, but really it is owned by Joseph Bonaparte de Quervon, a member of the Legislative Assembly, who expressed very different sentiments some years ago. The outcry of this party is particularly directed against the Portuguese residents; and the government has yielded so far as to dismiss from its employ all Portuguese who were not naturalized citizens. But this does not still satisfy them, and being easily excited by the Nova Luz, they will probably soon commence a reign of terror, unless the objects of their hatred are removed from the country. The Regency are justly anxious to retain this the most wealthy, thy, industrious and intelligent part of the population, without whom, indeed, the country must infallibly sink under the power of the blacks."

Various Matters.

We learn, with great pleasure, that Chief Justice Marshall continues to gain strength, and gives hopes of his early recovery, under the constant attention of Dr. Physic. We have never known our citizens more solicitous for the welfare of any man, than they have shown themselves for the Chief Justice, so eminently deserving of the good wishes of all.—U. S. Gaz.

The case of Judge Marshall is one of the most extraordinary ever known or heard of in the annals of Surgery. One of the surgeons present at the operation has stated to us, that six hundred formations of gravel, from the size of large peas down to that of small shot, taken from the venerable sufferer, were actually counted; and that the whole number probably exceeded a thousand. The case was so difficult, that instead of two or three minutes, the operation was necessarily protracted to above 20. Not a groan escaped his lips, nor was there a perceptible twinge of a muscle. The wonder is, that, subject to so formidable a complaint, the constitution of the patient has not long since sunk under it, or his intellectual vigor been impaired.—N. Y. Com.

We mentioned several days ago that two enterprising citizens of this State, General Cameron and Mr. McCord, had entered into a contract for digging a canal in the rear of New-Orleans, of considerable extent, to be completed in a certain time. The New-Orleans Argus, of the 6th inst. alluding to this undertaking, says:—"The terms, we believe, are 270,000 dollars, provided the canal be finished in four months; $250,000, if finished within five months; and $340,000, if finished within six months. The contractors, we are informed, will commence their work immediately, to which end they are daily expected with fifteen hundred hands."

General Cameron left this city on Friday last, for New-Orleans, taking with him five hundred laborers. His well known activity and enterprise are a guarantee that the work will be completed in the shortest possible time.

The sentencing of the missionaries in the Cherokee nation to confinement at hard labor in the Georgia Penitentiary for neglecting or refusing to take an oath of allegiance required by a law of that State from every person residing among the Indians, we regard as a most unfortunate, as well as tyrannical measure. It will create an excitement throughout the Union, from which we apprehend the most serious effects. Its tendency is, to enlist sympathies not only for the unfortunate prisoners but for the Indians, and to stir up a feeling the consequences of which it is difficult to anticipate. We deprecate all such acts of violence and intolerance, and we deprecate the retaliatory measures, which may be resorted to by the friends of the missionaries. Already have we heard from the pulpit loud and ominous denunciations of these oppressive and arbitrary acts, and we fear they will be followed by the outpourings of indignation, that will stir up to phrenzy the enthusiastic and religious portion of the community throughout our land.

Six years ago, who would have thought that a clergyman might be made a degraded "convict," for residing as a missionary amongst the heathen! In the whole history of statutory crime it may be doubted whether another instance is to be found of a penalty so enormous being actually inflicted, under forms of law, upon an act in itself commendable.

In Mr. Worcester's case, there is no doubt a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States will be allowed. Georgia will hardly hang him to abate it, so that the question which her violence last year prevented from being decided, must next winter come up for decision.—Cincinnati Gaz.

Nine hundred and seventy-five dollars have been recently awarded by a jury in the State of Ohio, in favor of a Mr. Williams against Dr. Orestes K. Hawley, for a mal-practice in treating a compound dislocation of the ankle joint of the plaintiff's wife. If every practitioner in cases of malpractice were thus heavily fined, the pockets of many would be much lighter.

Missionaries to the Pacific.—The New Bedford Gazette says, that twenty missionaries, under the patronage of the American Board of Missions, are expected to embark at that port, about the 15th November for the Marquesas and Sandwich Islands. Among them are a physician and two printers.

Vermont.—The Anti-masonic party has obtained the ascendancy in the government of this State, though it is in a minority among the people. The official canvass of votes given by the people, for Governor, was, for WILLIAM A. PALMER, 15,258; HEMAN ALLEN, 12,990; EZRA MEECH, 6,158; and the vote of the Legislature, (being the ninth ballot), which gave Mr. Palmer 114, Allen 36, Meech 43, and Crafts 35. So Mr. Palmer, the Anti-masonic candidate, was elected Governor by a majority of one vote. Mr. ALLEN was the independent National Republican candidate, and Mr. MEECH the Jackson candidate.

Nat. Int.

From the National Intelligencer.

The New-York "Whig," an Anti-masonic journal, (and the only we believe in the great city) heads its exhortations to all-unbelievers in the new craft thus:

"FOR WIRT AND THE LAWS!"

And the leading article under this head in the last number received is a modest proposal to Mr. CLAY to "withdraw from the competition for the Presidency!" It would be very unbecoming in him, certainly, not to avail himself of an invitation from so friendly and disinterested a source. But

Has the Whig yet to learn that Mr. CLAY has not the power, if he has the inclination, to withdraw himself? He has not put himself forward; how can he then withdraw himself? Though no man has more numerous and attached personal friends than he, it is from no merely personal consideration that the earnest friends of the Constitution, as hitherto expounded and administered, have with one accord turned their attention to Mr. CLAY as a candidate for the Presidency, but because he is the fittest man in the country for the station, and has besides justly earned their confidence and their gratitude by his faithful public services. His friends, who became his friends from principle, are more than ever his friends when they are made sensible of the deep-laid combination of his enemies and rivals for supplanting him. He cannot be withdrawn but by his friends, and they stand firmly around him.

Let the Whig, then, abandon its forlorn hope, furl its newly devised standard, and rally with us FOR CLAY & THE CONSTITUTION!

From the Virginia Free Press.

We have been requested to say, that the friends of the American System in Virginia, scout the idea of dropping Mr. CLAY, and rallying under the banner of any other man for the Presidency. Nothing but Mr. CLAY's death, or voluntary withdrawal, can induce them to entertain such a proposition.

Mr. CLAY at this moment stands on more elevated ground than any candidate before the people. Gen. Jackson is the office-holder's candidate—Mr. Wirt is the Anti-masonic candidate—Mr. Calhoun is the nullifier's candidate—Mr. CLAY is the PEOPLE'S candidate. He has formed no entangling alliances; been concerned in no forced nominations—accepted no half reluctant support, at the price of his independence. He pursues the same dignified, consistent, honorable, & upright course which has ever marked his conduct.—Alex. Gaz.

We have received our regular files of Kingston (Jamaica) papers to the 30th Sept. We regret to learn by these papers, that Colombia is still distracted by that spirit of anarchy which every true friend of the country predicted would be the result of the premature death of the lamented BOLIVAR.—The New-York Mercantile Advertiser states that elections, proscriptions and assassinations are daily committed.—The self-constituted government at Bogota is nothing more than the instrument of a vile and sanguinary faction. Humanity shudders at the perusal of the private letters and public papers which come from the interior of New Grenada. For some time past the vessels that have arrived from Carthagena, disembark here a number of unfortunate men who have been torn from their families and country for political purposes—sixteen officers thus shipped off arrived here on Tuesday in the schr. Dart, most of them in a state of the utmost destitution.—Balt. Gaz.

A Floating Saw Mill!—The Steam Boat United States, so long known on the line between Baltimore & Frenchtown, has been purchased for the purpose of being converted into a floating saw mill. The necessary machinery is to be put on board of her, and she is to be employed in cruising up and down the shores of the Chesapeake, doing jobs in sawing for lumber merchants!

Much damage has been sustained lately by the overflow of the Rivers Delaware, Schuylkill and Lehigh. Some mills and dwellings were swept away.

Robbery.—John Bruner, a travelling merchant, was robbed of $850, by two freebooters, one armed with a rifle and the other with a brace of pistols, on the night of the 18th ult. on the Klingers-town road, in the west part of Schuylkill county. He was driving a two-horse wagon. One of his horses was shot down and a weapon pointed at him, when he sprang from the wagon, and made his escape.

Fifty hundred dollars damages have been recovered in Connecticut against a township, for an individual injury sustained by means of a defective bridge. It appeared in evidence, that the Select men, whose duty it was to attend to it, had been duly warned of the dangerous situation of the bridge.

Twelve thousand dollars have been remitted from Philadelphia, for the relief of the Fayetteville sufferers.

Delegata Meeting.

At a meeting of Delegates from the Borough of Gettysburg, and the different townships in the county of Adams, elected by the "Democratic Republican Citizens of Adams county, and all others opposed to the dangerous and proscriptive principles of Political Anti-Masonry," held at the Court house in the borough of Gettysburg, on Monday the 24th Oct. 1831—Robert M. Hutchisson, of Berlin, was called to the Chair, and George Geyer, Jr. of the borough of Gettysburg, appointed Secretary.

George Brown, Esq. John B. Clark, Esq. and David Blythe, were appointed Conferees to meet the Conferees of this Congressional District, at Shippenburg, on the 1st November, to nominate a candidate for Congress, in the room of Wm Ramsey, Esq. deceased.

Hon. Daniel Sheffer, A. G. Miller, and Isaac Robinson, Esqs. were appointed to represent Adams County, in a Convention to be held in Harrisburg on the 4th of March next, or such other day or days as may be fixed upon in the mean time, to nominate Candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, and to form an Electoral Ticket for the same; and to nominate a Candidate for Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That these several Delegates have power to supply any vacancy that may occur in their respective bodies.

The following proceedings were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the peace and happiness of this community have been disturbed by a manoeuvre of designing and unprincipled men, called "Political Anti-Masonry," which does not appear to be predicated on the liberal principles of our Government, but has been directed to the destruction of honest and worthy members of society, who have, and are entitled to, equal rights and privileges with all citizens. And having viewed, with serious concern for the equal & liberal institutions of our country, as well the original design, and the various windings and inconsistencies of the leaders of Political Anti-Masonry, as the gross deception practised upon the honesty and credulity of the people, by their nomination of A MASON, who adheres to the principles of the Order, and has not renounced, for the high office of President of the U. States—we must, as citizens of a free country, protest against Political Anti-Masonry, as dangerous in principle, and opposed to the sacred, and equal, and liberal institutions of our Government. Therefore,

Resolved, That we cannot sanction or support, but must in conscience oppose, any party or association in politics, that is not founded on the equal and liberal principles of our Constitutions & laws.

Resolved, That we consider the fact of political anti-masons persecuting, at home, men who ever had attached themselves to the Masonic institution, and all others who will not assist them in their purposes—and, at the same time, nominating for the highest office in the gift of the American people, Wm. Wirt, a Mason who has not renounced—to be a violation of principle, and an imposition upon an honest and virtuous people.

Resolved, That our Conferees to Shippenburg be instructed to put in nomination for Congress no man, but a friend of the Tariff and Protecting Duties; a known friend of the General and State Administrations; & a firm opponent of Political Anti-Masonry.

Resolved, That we approve of the administration of General Andrew Jackson, and instruct our Representatives to the State Convention, to support his nomination for a re-election to the office of President of the United States:

Because he is, in all respects, eminently qualified by his talents, integrity, and republican principles, for that high and responsible station:

Because we believe the principles of his administration are according to the constitution and laws of our country, which he has construed, so as to reduce them to their original purity:

Because he has prevented, by his veto of the Maysville Road bill, a lavish and unconstitutional expenditure of public money, for local not national purposes of improvement, which would have operated to the embarrassment of our government, and to the prejudice of our citizens:

Because he has retrenched the expenditures of Government, and he requires from all officers a strict performance of their duties, and an exact accountability of public funds; and in so doing, he has dismissed from office hordes of officers, who had been draining the public treasury for their own emolument and gain, and who, when called to account, proved delinquent:

Because he has nearly paid off the national debt; and, if re-elected, he will have it extinguished:

Because he has proved to the American people his honest devotion to their interests and wishes, and his integrity and firmness of purpose, by dismissing a cabinet, in which full confidence was not reposed, for their deception and intrigue, and formed a new one of eminent, and distinguished, and competent individuals:

Because, while others were calculating the "value of the Union of these States," he has declared the principle, and will maintain it—"The Federal Union—it must be preserved!"

Because, by his able and efficient administration of public affairs, he has given the world to know, that, as the Executive of the American Government, it is his "settled purpose to ask nothing that is not clearly right; and to submit to nothing that is wrong"—by which he has established for us abroad, fame, honor and dignity, and at home, happiness and prosperity:

Because he has secured to the United States additional interest, in obtaining sundry treaties and negotiations with foreign nations—such as the treaty with England, for the trade of the West India Islands; the treaty with Turkey, for the free navigation of the Black Sea; the treaties with Denmark, Brazil and Colombia, for indemnities for spoliation on our commerce; and that with France for the same, by which American citizens obtain from the French nation twenty-five millions of francs:

Because he has had the duty on the common necessities of life, and articles not the produce of this country, such as salt, coffee, tea, cocoa, &c. reduced, so that they can be obtained at a cheaper rate:

Because of his just and humane contracts with, and treatment of, the Indian nations:

Because he has abolished the horrid crime of Duelling in the Army and Navy of the U. States, and among officers of government, by dismissing from office all persons engaged in the same:

Because, although he is willing to decline, yet the American people wish to prove, a second time, that Republics are not ungrateful to the Hero & Statesman.

Resolved, That his Excellency GEO. WOLF deserves the approbation of our citizens, for the able, honest and independent manner he has administered the government of this Commonwealth; and especially for his recommendation of the means of diffusing a general system of Education among us, whereby our children can soon derive all necessary instruction gratis; and his firm and independent policy of preventing the accumulation of the public debt, so imprudently contracted during the administration of his predecessor, unless to complete public works already commenced, which would otherwise be useless.

Resolved, That, as we can discover no reason why there should be any change in the Administration of our State, we unanimously instruct our Representatives to said Convention, to put in nomination his Excellency GEO. WOLF, for a re-election to the office of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the papers in this County.

Already have we heard from the pulpit loud and ominous denunciations of these oppressive and arbitrary acts, and we fear they will be followed by the outpourings of indignation, that will stir up to phrenzy the enthusiastic and religious portion of the community throughout our land.

Six years ago, who would have thought that a clergyman might be made a degraded "convict," for residing as a missionary amongst the heathen! In the whole history of statutory crime it may be doubted whether another instance is to be found of a penalty so enormous being actually inflicted, under forms of law, upon an act in itself commendable.

In Mr. Worcester's case, there is no doubt a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States will be allowed. Georgia will hardly hang him to abate it, so that the question which her violence last year prevented from being decided, must next winter come up for decision.—Cincinnati Gaz.

Nine hundred and seventy five dollars have been recently awarded by a jury in the State of Ohio, in favor of a Mr. Williams against Dr. Grestes K. Hawley, for a malpractice in treating a compound dislocation of the ankle joint of the plaintiff's wife. If every practitioner in cases of malpractice were thus heavily fined, the pockets of many would be much lighter.

Missionaries to the Pacific—The New Bedford Gazette says, that twenty missionaries, under the patronage of the American Board of Missions, are expected to embark at that port, about the 15th November, for the Marquesas and Sandwich Islands. Among them are a physician and two printers.

Torment—The Anti-masonic party has obtained the ascendancy in the government of this State, though it is in a minority among the people. The official canvass of votes given by the people, for Governor, was, for William A. Patman, 15,258; H. M. Allen, 12,491; Ezra Mendenhall, 11,515; and the vote of the Legislature, (being the ninth ballot) which gave Mr. Palmer 114, Allen 36, Meech 42, and Crafts 55. So Mr. PALMER, the Anti-masonic candidate, was elected Governor by a majority of one vote. Mr. ALLEN was the independent National Republican candidate, and Mr. Meech the Jackson candidate. Nat. Int.

From the National Intelligencer.

The New-York "Whig," an Anti-masonic journal, (and the only we believe in the great city) heads its exhortations to all unbelievers in the new craft thus:

"FOR WIRT AND THE LAWS."

And the leading article under this head in the last number received is a modest proposal to Mr. CLAY to "withdraw from the competition for the Presidency!" It would be very uncivil in him, certainly, not to avail himself of an invitation from so friendly and disinterested a source. But

Has the Whig yet to learn that Mr. CLAY has not the power, if he has the inclination, to withdraw himself? He has not put himself forward; how can he then withdraw himself? Though no man has more numerous and attached personal friends than he, it is from no merely personal consideration that the earnest friends of the Constitution, as hitherto expounded and administered, have with one accord turned their attention to Mr. CLAY as a candidate for the Presidency, but because he is the fittest man in the country for the station, and has besides justly earned their confidence and their gratitude by his faithful public services. His friends, who became his friends from principle, are more than ever his friends when they are made sensible of the deep-laid combination of his enemies and rivals for supplanting him. He cannot be withdrawn but by his friends, and they stand firmly around him.

Let the Whig, then, abandon its forlorn hope, furl its newly devised standard, and rally with us FOR CLAY & THE CONSTITUTION!

From the Virginia Free Press.

We have been requested to say, that the friends of the American System in Virginia, scout the idea of dropping Mr. CLAY, and rallying under the banner of any other man for the Presidency. Nothing but Mr. CLAY's death, or voluntary withdrawal, can induce them to entertain such a proposition.

Mr. CLAY at this moment stands on more elevated ground than any candidate before the people. Gen. Jackson is the office-holder's candidate—Mr. Wirt is the Anti-masonic candidate—Mr. Calhoun is the nullifier's candidate—Mr. CLAY is the PEOPLE'S candidate. He has formed no entangling alliances, been concerned in no forced nominations—accepted no half reluctant support, at the price of his independence. He pursues the same dignified, consistent, honorable, & upright course which has ever marked his conduct.—Alex. Gaz.

We have received our regular files of Kingston (Jamaica) papers to the 30th Sept. We regret to learn by these papers, that Colombia is still distracted by that spirit of anarchy which every true friend of the country predicted would be the result of the premature death of the lamented Bolivar.—The New-York Mercantile Advertiser states that elections, proscriptions and assassinations are daily committed.—The self-constituted government at Bogota is nothing more than the instrument of a vile and sanguinary faction. Humanity shudders at the perusal of the private letters and public papers which come from the interior of New Grenada. For some time past the vessels that have arrived from Carthage, disembark here a number of unfortunate men who have been torn from their families and country for political purposes—sixteen officers thus shipped off arrived here on Tuesday in the schr. Dart, most of them in a state of the utmost destitution.—Bull. Gaz.

A Floating Saw Mill—The Steam Boat United States, so long known on the line between Baltimore & Frenchtown, has been purchased for the purpose of being converted into a floating saw mill. The necessary machinery is to be put on board of her, and she is to be employed in cruising up and down the shores of the Chesapeake, doing jobs in sawing for lumber merchants!

Much damage has been sustained lately by the overflow of the Rivers Delaware, Schuylkill and Lehigh. Some mills and dwellings were swept away.

Robbery—John Bruner, a travelling merchant, was robbed of $850, by two freebooters, one armed with a rifle and the other with a brace of pistols, on the night of the 14th ult. on the Kingers-town road, in the west part of Schuylkill county. He was driving a two-wheeled wagon. One of his horses was shot down and a weapon pointed at him when he sprang from the wagon, and made his escape.

Five hundred dollars damages have been recovered in the recent lawsuit against a turnpike for an individual injury sustained by means of a defective bridge. It appears that a horse, in the street near the said bridge, was so badly injured, and severely wounded, by the dangerous situation of the bridge.

Twelve thousand dollars have been remitted from Philadelphia, for the relief of the Fayetteville sufferers.
